WAR RELIEF FUND.

What the Women of St. Johnsbury Did Since Last November.

Those who have not been able to keep in close touch with the War Relief work done by the women of St. Johnsbury may be interested to know what has been accomplished since the first of November, 1916. Below is the list of articles made and sent to the different New England branches to be forwarded to the allies.

Four hundred and seven packages compress sponges (4070), 1070 rolled bandages, 200 fracture and comfort pillows, 265 knitted 15 cent knit socks, 119 eye, ear and jaw bandages, 6 knit sleeveless sweaters, 16 fingerless gloves, 5 floor cloths, 26 draw pads, 25 slings, 10 handkerchiefs, 19 pajama jackets, 1 knit muffler.

Since last July $222.13 has been expended for supplies and expressage on the packages sent. This money came from entertainments and private contributions. The treasury is now quite low and it is earnestly hoped that any who cannot attend the meetings may be glad to help us with gifts of money.

The meeting will be continued during the winter every Tuesday afternoon in the Brotherhood room of the North church, and all women of the town are most cordially invited to come and help in this important work.

HELD UNDER $1000 BAIL

Zullo To Appear in County Court on Forgery Charge

Frank Zullo, who was arrested by Sheriff Warthen at Barre, Monday afternoon, charged with being one of two men implicated in the forging and passing of checks to the amount of $195 at the Amos W. Scott & Co. store, Saturday, was brought before Judge G. C. Frye in Municipal Court Wednesday morning. He pleaded not guilty and was bound over to county court under $1000 bail, which was not furnished. He was committed to Caledonia County Jail to await trial.

County Court reconvenes Tuesday, January 23, but whether the case will be tried at this term of court or held over until the June term is not known. The juryman have been dismissed and it would be necessary calling a new panel. As far as is known Sammy Vellente, the other man concerned in the forgery, has not been apprehended by those working on the case.

ST. JOHNSBURY ACADEMY NOTES

The "Academy Student" was placed on sale Tuesday morning and the entire edition is now very nearly exhausted. The students seemed well satisfied with the paper and the commendation received from various members of the faculty should go a long way toward inducing the alumni to increase the paid subscription list. Extra copies may be obtained at Taylor's Book Store at the regular price. The management announces that the second edition will be placed on sale in about five weeks.

Leighland Parker, St. J. A. '16, who has been visiting his many academy friends the past few days, returned to his school at the University of Vermont Tuesday.

Approximately forty members of the class of 1917 enjoyed a large ride to Concord Saturday evening, followed by a dance, with an orchestra furnishing music. Refreshments were served by the girls which added much to the enjoyment of the occasion. The affair seemed to be successful in every detail, and the hospitality of Concord people assisted greatly in the result.

Social hour will be held tonight at four o'clock with the customary program.
